JDA Software Group Announces Private Offering of $275 Million of Senior Notes

Scottsdale, Arizona – November 30, 2009 – JDA® Software Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: JDAS) today announced that it intends to commence an offering, subject to market and other conditions, of $275 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes in a private offering. JDA intends to use the proceeds of the offering, along with its existing cash and cash on hand at i2 Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ: ITWO), to pay the cash portion of the consideration payable to i2's common and preferred shareholders in connection with the previously announced acquisition of i2 by JDA, as well as the estimated fees and other transactions costs of the acquisition and offering. The notes will be guaranteed by JDA's existing and future domestic subsidiaries, including, following the closing of the acquisition, i2 and its domestic subsidiaries, other than certain immaterial subsidiaries.

The senior notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable state securities laws, and will be offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A and in offshore transactions pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Unless so registered, the senior notes may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy these securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
